Professional tutors can also be booked here.

Write-In

Sunday, December 3, 6:00-10:00 p.m.
Dinand 202
Hosted by the Writer's Workshop

Drop in at Dinand Library to work on your end-of-term papers! Carve out some time to get writing done in solidarity with others. Writer's Workshop consultants will be available to answer quick questions that come up while you're writing. Refreshments will be provided.

The goal of the Write-In is to provide resources, structure, and accountability to help you get writing done. We invite you to stay for the full time, but you are welcome to drop in or out as your schedule allows. Please register in advance.

ASLR: Students looking for individualized academic support may sign up for 30-minute appointments with an Academic Services and Learning Resources (ASLR) staff member to discuss helpful learning and study strategies to prepare for finals week. Information on scheduling an appointment can be found here.

Students looking for tutoring in select quantitative and science courses may sign up for an appointment with a peer tutor in the STEM+E Workshop. The STEM+E Workshop will remain open until Thursday, Dec. 7th.

LIBRARY: Librarians are available to help with your work. You can still schedule a VIRTUAL Personal Research Session. <https://libguides.holycross.edu/ask>
